The Grand Quilt Trail

The Grand Quilt Trail began in the Spring of 2017 with the leadership of the Grand Quilters and Cozens Ranch Museum of the Grand County Historical Association. A group of talented volunteers devoted hundreds of hours creating over 350 quilt blocks to brighten up Grand County and beyond.

A quilt trail is a series of painted wood quilt squares installed at locations along a route. Currently North America has quilt trails in 43 of the United States as well as in three Canadian provinces.

The idea for the quilt or barn blocks started in the farmlands of Ohio in 2001. The outdoor blocks celebrate quilting in rural America. They are public art pieces that honor not only rural arts, but also women's traditional arts.

For decades now, the Grand Quilters meet monthly in each other's homes to share their latest creations and support each others' lives and passions. The idea dawned to join the national movement to honor Grand County women's textile arts and start the Grand Quilt Trail for all of Grand County and to raise funds for our Historical Museums.

Thank you to the community members who have supported the Grand Quilt Trail and a special thank you to the volunteers who prepped and painted.

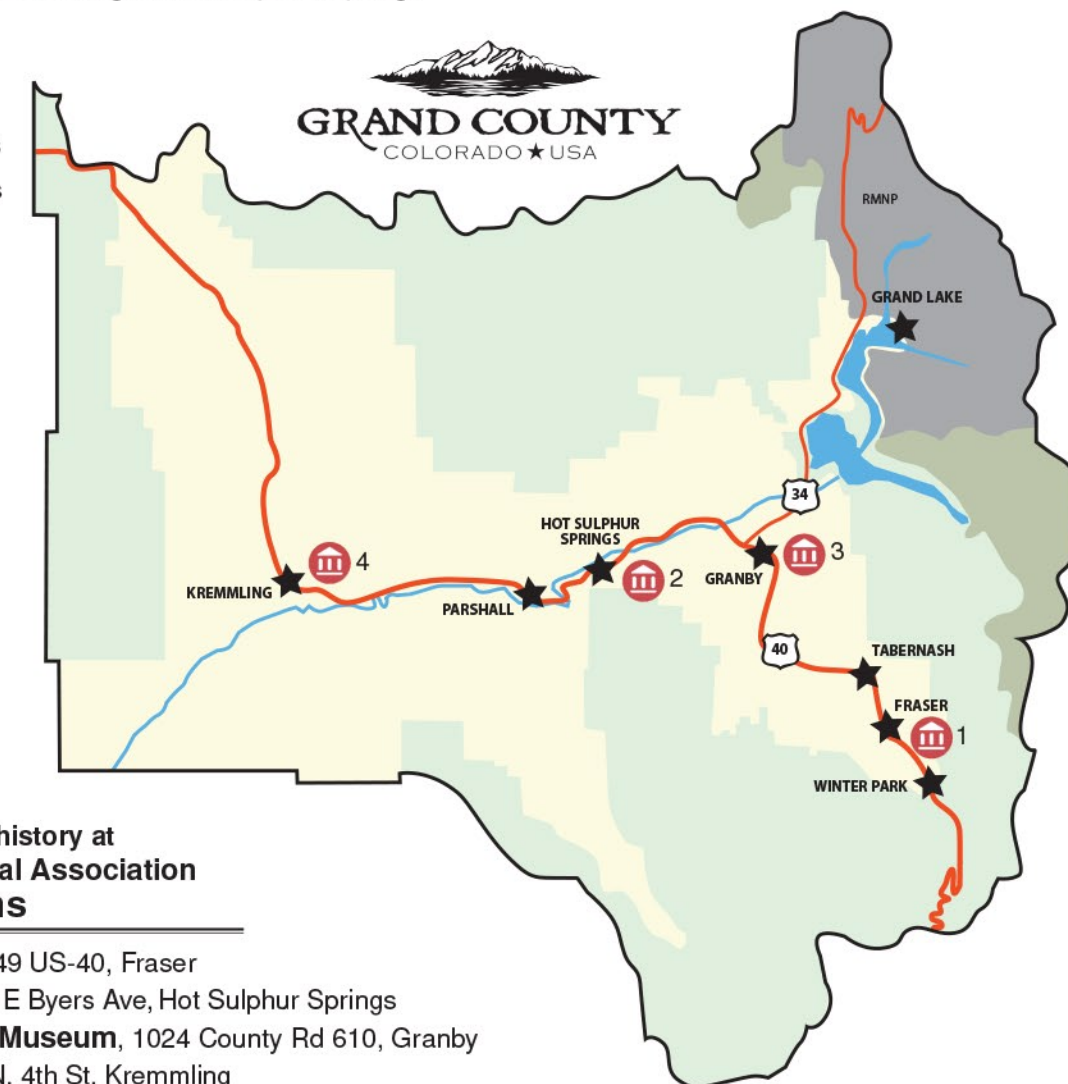

Sponsors include all the businesses and individuals listed in this brochure who made donations to Grand County Historical Association. In addition, generous support came from Fraser Valley Ace Hardware, Mountain Moon Yoga, Winter Park Times, McConnell Printing & Design, and Firebird Design Works.

Information about the Grand Quilt Trail is available at Grand County Historical Association museums, which are shown on the map below. For more information, please go to www.grandcountyhistory.org.
